2 THE CONTRACT

2.1 These Terms constitute the contract between the Employment Business and the Client for the supply of the Temporary Worker’s services by the Employment Business to the Client and are deemed to be accepted by the Client by virtue of its request for, interview with or Engagement of the Temporary Worker or the passing of any information about the Temporary Worker to any third party following an Introduction.

2.2 These Terms contain the entire agreement between the parties and unless otherwise agreed in writing by a representative of the Employment Business, these Terms prevail over any Terms of Business or purchase conditions put forward by the Client.

2.3 No variation or alteration to these Terms shall be valid unless the details of such variation are agreed between the Employment Business and the Client and are set out in writing and a copy of the varied terms is given to the Client stating the date on or after which such varied terms shall apply.

3 CHARGES

3.1 The Client agrees to pay the hourly charges of the Employment Business. These charges will be those in force at the time of the Assignment and the Employment Business reserves the right to review and / or increase the said charges for the supply of a Temporary Worker whether during the course of an Assignment or otherwise. The Client will be notified of such review and / or increase as and when it happens. Any reviewed or increased charges will be payable in accordance with these Terms and Conditions.

3.2 The charges are calculated according to the number of hours worked by the Temporary Worker (to the nearest quarter hour). The charges comprise mainly the Temporary Worker’s pay but also include the Employment Business’ commission calculated as a percentage of the Temporary Worker’s pay, employer’s National Insurance contributions, holiday pay in accordance with AWR, Auto Enrolment pension costs and any travel, hotel or other expenses as may have been agreed with the Client or, if there is no such agreement, such expenses as are reasonable. Our charge rates will change when there are changes in the Minimum Wage and Minimum Statutory Leave and to comply with AWR and increases in Auto Enrolment contributions. These changes are made by government and we would pass the cost of these changes on to the client.

3.3 VAT, if applicable, is payable on the entirety of these charges set out in 3.2

3.4 The charges are invoiced to the Client on a weekly basis and are payable within 14 days of the Employment Business' invoice. The Employment Business reserves the right to charge interest on any overdue amounts at the rate of 4% of the gross fee for each month (or part thereof) for which the debt remains unpaid beyond the due date. Where the customer does not settle its debt with Prodrive Personnel Ltd within the terms agreed, Prodrive Personnel Ltd has the right to remove all discounts and revert to standard tariff, for all temporary assignments the discount will be deemed to be 25% of the hourly charge subject to a minimum of £2.50 per hour invoiced and will be subject to VAT.

3.5 There are no rebates payable in respect of the charges of the Employment Business.

4 INFORMATION TO BE PROVIDED BY CLIENT

4.1 The Client shall provide sufficient information to the Employment Business to enable the Employment Business to introduce or supply Temporary Worker to a Client for the position which the Client seeks to fill, including the following information:

4.1.1 the identity of the Client and, if applicable, the nature of the Client's business;

4.1.2 the date on which the Client requires a Temporary Worker to commence work and the duration, or likely duration, of the work

4.1.3 the position which the Client seeks to fill, including the type of work a Temporary Worker in that position would be required to do, the location at which and the hours during which he would be required to work and any risks to health or safety known to the Client and what steps the Client has taken to prevent or control such risks.

4.1.4 the experience, training, qualifications and any authorisation which the Client considers are necessary, or which are required by law, or by any professional body, for a Temporary Worker to possess in order to work in the position.

5 INFORMATION TO BE PROVIDED BY EMPLOYMENT BUSINESS

5.1 When making an Introduction of a Temporary Worker to the Client the Employment Business shall inform the Client of the identity of the Temporary Worker; that the Temporary Worker has the necessary or required experience, training, qualifications and any authorisation required by law or a professional body to work in the Assignment.

5.2 Where such information is not given in paper form or by electronic means it shall be confirmed by such means by the end of the third business day (excluding Saturday, Sunday and any public or Bank holiday) following, save where the Temporary Worker is being Introduced for an Assignment in the same position as one in which the Temporary Worker had previously been supplied within the previous five business days and such information has already been given to the Client.

6 TIME SHEETS

6.1 At the end of each week of an Assignment (or at the end of the Assignment where it is for a period of one week or less) the Client shall sign the Employment Business' time sheet verifying the number of hours worked by the Temporary Worker during that week.

6.2 Signature of the time sheet by the Client is confirmation of the number of hours worked. If the Client is unable to sign a time sheet produced for authentication by the Temporary Worker because the Client disputes the hours claimed, the Client shall inform the Employment Business as soon as is reasonably practicable and shall co-operate fully and in a timely fashion with the Employment Business to enable the Employment Business to establish what hours, if any, were worked by the Temporary Worker. Failure to sign the time sheet does not absolve the Client's obligation to pay the charges in respect of the hours worked.

6.3 The Client shall not be entitled to decline to sign a timesheet on the basis that he is dissatisfied with the work performed by the Temporary Worker. In cases of unsuitable work the Client should apply the provisions of clause 11.1 below.

The Client will assist the Employment Business in complying with the Employment Business' duties under the Working Time Regulations by supplying any relevant information about the Assignment requested by the Employment Business and the Client will not do anything to cause the Employment Business to be in breach of its obligations under these Regulations. Where the Client requires or may require the services of a Temporary Worker for more than 48 hours in any week, the Client must notify the Employment Business of this requirement before the commencement of that week.

9.5 The Client undertakes that it knows of no reason why it would be detrimental to the interests of the Temporary Worker for the Temporary Worker to fill the Assignment.

the Assignment either by instructing the Temporary Worker to leave the Assignment immediately, or by directing the Employment Business to remove the Temporary Worker.
